„Przeegląd Europejski” is indexed in important international databases:

EBSCO

DOAJ

In 2021 the journal applied to Web of Science and Scopus. It is under assessment now.

We publish (free of charge) mainly original peer-reviewed scientific articles in political sciences and administration, law, international relations, economics, sociology, and broadly defined European studies.

All papers are evaluated by the Editorial board and, if selected for review, they are then assessed by two independent reviewers in a double-blind review procedure.

Additionally, not-reviewed materials are also published: essays, book reviews, conference reports.

Languages: English, Polish, Russian, German, French, Spanish, Italian, Esperanto.

Each issue of „Przegląd Europejski” is divided into four sections:

- ▶ Theories and methods in European studies;
- ▶ Law, institutions and policies of the European Union;
- ▶ History, culture and society in Europe;
- ▶ European impressions (essays, book reviews, research notes, conference reports, and papers submitted by students are published in this section).
